JOE MACKEY WILL PLEAD GUILTY AT SOCORRO

Sierra County Outlaw Taken Before Judge Mechem to Confess to Long Standing Indictment.

To plead guilty to an indictment for horse stealing returned against him more than four years ago, Joe Mackey passed through Albuquerque yesterday on his way to Socorro, where he will plead guilty before Judge Mechem, now sitting there.

Mackey has been at the state penitentiary in Santa Fe since he was taken by Sheriff W. C. Kendall of Sierra county for safe-keeping. The sierra county sheriff had several experiences with Mackey during his four years at large, in which the outlaw twice escaped, and was caught early this month after a desperate chase across southern New Mexico. He was at liberty for four years after his indictment, breaking out of the county jail at Hillsboro.

The Weather

FORECAST — Tonight and Thursday generally fair except probably snow in northwest portion.
Warmer north portion tonight. Colder east portion Thursday.

ALBUQUERQUE Weather: We revert to announce that the local weather man is taking a vacation, probably to rest up after his condemnable exertions of last week.
Therefore we have no local weather today. If the absence of the weather man results in weather like that of this morning, the weather man has our permission to stay away indefinitely.

Things Doing Tonight.
Elks meet at 8 o'clock.
Royal Neighbors meet A. O. U.
W. hall 7:30.

Order Railway Employees meet

8 o'clock in K. of P. hall.

Modern Woodmen of America.
Usual place.

Worth Knowing.

In Saxon "hord" means shield.
In the Viking ships each warrior hung his shield on the side of the ship opposite to him, and above the aperture for his oar. The Viking held the steer oar, which was fastened to the right-hand side of stem (stem is itself a contraction of steer oar). The right-hand side of the ship thus became the steer side, and as hord came to mean the whole side where the shields or hords were hung, the right side came to be the starboard (starboard) side, and the lower or lurking side became larboard.
